

United Way of Mid & South
Jefferson County

Diversity and inclusion are at the heart of what it means to LIVE UNITED. We stand against all barriers that divide, separate, or single out any individual, group, or culture. We promote a climate that welcomes, understands, respects, and celebrates the diversity that makes our community a better place to live. We practice anti-racism and anti-prejudice to foster the vision of a better world.